The parties are stated to have amicably compromised the subject matter of the present suit amongst themselves and they have filed a joint compromise application under Order 23 Rule 3 CPC. The Registry may give number to the said application. The joint compromise application filed by the parties has been signed by the plaintiff and also by defendant No. 2 and their respective counsels. This application is also supported by the affidavits of the plaintiff and defendant No. 2. The counsel for defendant No. 1 says that he has no objection to the compromise arrived at between the plaintiff and defendant No. 2. Both the parties want that the present suit may be disposed of in terms of their compromise as contained in the joint compromise application filed by them today in Court.

In view of the above, the present suit is disposed of as compromised in terms contained in the joint compromise application.
